Sentric®
Your Workforce. In Focus.

SentricWorkforce® Human Resources
The heart of a strong company.

Companies who see their people as the true strength of their business love SentricWorkforce® Human Resources. Our cloud-based application helps you strengthen your company by streamlining and controlling the HR activities that can slow down a busy organization—without increasing your demand on the IT department's resources.

Plus, you can take all of that daily-generated data and turn it into reports and analyses that will give you the best picture of where your company is and where it's going.
